

READY TO DISSOLVE
COMBINE

American Telephone and Telegraph Company to Effect Reorganization

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

Of Telegraph and Telephone Lines Endorsed by Postmaster General Burleson Undoubtedly Responsible for the Proposed Move.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The greatest anti-trust victory of President Wilson's administration thus far—the voluntary solution of the so-called telephone trust—commanded the attention of all administration officials today.

Next to the fact that all the features against which the government was preparing an anti-trust suit will be eliminated with the consent and co-operation of "big business" itself without years of court fighting, the principal topic of discussion in administration circles today was, what effect will the dissolution have on the movement for government ownership. It has been generally expected in congress that such a plan would soon be urged as an administration measure.

With the voluntary dissolution of the so-called trust actually underway, however, Attorney General Mc-Reynolds and the interstate commerce commission today prepared to scan the details of the separation of the American Telephone and Telegraph from the Western Union and the work of disentangling telephone affairs throughout the country which threatened Federal action. Not only had the American Telephone and Telegraph company agreed to give up its control of the Western Union, but it has agreed not to extend its monopoly of local companies in the "telephone field." The most important point to the American people, officials declare, is the telephone company's agreement to extend the use of its toll lines to all local companies. That concession, which was admittedly more than Attorney General McReynolds expected to secure in a legal fight opens long distance facilities by telephone to many communities which have long been denied it.

As the work of separating the two big companies goes on points on which they may be in doubt will be submitted to Attorney General Mc-Reynolds and the interstate commerce commission for decision.

Administration supporters after informal conferences on the telephone dissolution and going over so much of the plan as has been published, were of the opinion that the latest development would at least retard the movement to present the government ownership question to congress. Some thought the company's voluntary readjustment to meet the views of the department of justice has created an entirely new situation which the government ownership supporters would have to consider before going further.

Representative Lewis of Maryland, author of the parcels post law and active in the movement for government ownership of telegraph and telephone lines, introduced a resolution, however, to direct the house postoffice commission to go ahead and report a bill for government ownership of telephone lines to be operated by the postoffice department.

In a statement accompanying his resolution, Mr. Lewis contended that the action of the Bell Telephone company to prevent litigation under the anti-trust law did not affect the legislative situation at all.

"The action of the Bell company will not reduce a single telephone or telegraph rate in the United States and so the public necessities for legislative action to postalize these methods of communication as they have been in nearly all other countries are not affected in the least," he said.

The Lewis resolution embodies a plan by which the telephone lines would be appraised by the interstate commerce commission and the companies might appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals. Pending litigation interest at the rate of four per cent a year would be paid to the owners. The government would issue three per cent bonds from time to time as the acquisition of properties demanded.

Postoffice Open Sunday P. M.

The Newark postoffice will be open Sunday afternoon from 1 to 3 o'clock to receive packages for mailing, but none will be delivered.

Verdict in Moriarity Murder Case Expected
Sometime Before Night

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Joseph Moriarity came into court today for the last day of his trial, confident of acquittal. If the jury decides that Moriarity, who also has gone by the name of William J. Leehan, did not murder Mrs. Caroline Turner, the mystery of her death will be darker than ever.

By far the most interesting testimony was the story of a woman who said that on the night Mrs. Turner was supposed to have died an auto was wrecked near the witness' home and that she heard a voice she identified as Mrs. Turner's calling for help. The defense contends that Mrs. Turner was in some way connected with this automobile accident and that Moriarity is innocent. The witness testified that she had committed the murder and his attorneys believe that they established a good alibi. Consul summed up today and a verdict was expected before nightfall.

Before the summing up began counsel for the prosecution agreed to adhere to a stipulation that conviction would be asked for first degree murder only and that if Moriarity was not guilty of that crime he was not guilty at all.

In his closing speech for the defense, W. H. Jayne denounced the methods of the prosecution. The case against Moriarity, he said, had been worked up by detectives as a "commercial undertaking" to advertise their profession. The state's evidence, he asserted, was wholly circumstantial, and much of it perjured. He contended that the defense had accounted for Moriarity's movements on the day of the alleged murder so closely that only seven minutes remained unaccounted for and it would have been impossible for him to commit the murder within such a short time.

KILLED WIFE AND NEPHEW
EARLY TODAY

GRANTZ, GRANTZ, Dec. 20.—Count Martha McElzyski, a millionaire Polish nobleman and member of the Vorparian imperial parliament, shot and killed his wife and his nephew early today. The count, who is residing near here at castle Lakowicz, one of his many country seats, heard shots in the night which he thought were caused by thieves. He seized a rifle and made a search during which he found his wife and nephew together in her room.

Without a word of warning or explanation Count McElzyski shot both dead.

REPUBLICANS
IN COUNCIL
HOLD CAUCUS

Republican members of the city council held a caucus Friday night when questions relative to the organization were discussed. According to a statement of one of the councilmen, no definite decision was reached at the caucus and another meeting will be held some time next week when the matter will be discussed further.

CLEAR UP THE
DISAPPEARANCE OF CLEVELANDER

CLEVELAND, Dec. 20.—The mystery in the disappearance of Henry Baumohl, 58 insurance man, was cleared up today when a corpse found last night on the lake beach in the eastern part of the city, was identified as his. He is believed to have jumped into the lake on the night of October 31 from a D. and C. steamer. Worry over the death of his wife is thought to have prompted him to end his life.

CURRENCY
MEASURE
PASSES

Senate Adopts It by Vote of 54 to 36, Six Republicans Contributing Support

CONFEREES IN SESSION

Effort Will Be Made to Agree on Report Which Both Houses Can Accept
So That It May Become a Law Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—After a hot debate in the house today administration leaders had their way and sent the currency bill to a conference committee. Attempts to concur at once in the senate amendments were defeated, 294 to 59.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Final work of preparing the administration currency bill for President Wilson's signature was begun today when the house and senate conferees met to compare differences between the "Owen substitute" as the measure was known as it passed the senate by a vote of 54 to 34, six Republicans voting with the Democrats, and the Glass bill which was the administration measure in the house. Senators Owen, Read, O'Gorman, Pom-erene, Shafroth and Hollis, Democrats, and Senators Nelson, Bristow and Crawford, Republicans, will represent the senate in the conference.
Chairman Glass of the house banking committee who was sponsor for the bill in the house, will head the house conferees. He will include Representatives Kerby and Hayes.
An effort will be made to agree upon a report on which both houses of congress can accept so that the bill may be finally engrossed and taken to the White House to become a law with President Wilson's signature by Tuesday.

The principal points of difference which will have to be agreed upon or compromised are the number of general reserve banks, a guarantee of deposits, the length of maturity of paper for re-discount at national banks, the percentage of gold reserve to be required against the circulating notes and the time limit of mortgages on which national banks would be permitted to make farm loans.

Democratic Leader Underwood, in the house, sees no serious points of difference in the two bills; the guarantee of deposits which was inserted by the senate is practically the only change made in fundamentals. All the changes made by the senate are understood to be agreeable to President Wilson.

As one administration official put it today, "the plan is to have the president sign this bill before Wednesday so that it may become a Christmas present for the American people."

When the bill becomes a law, President Wilson will be confronted with taking the first step to put it into effect. That will be the appointment of a Federal reserve board of seven members who will make all the arrangements for the transition from the present currency system to the new one. Many suggestions have been made as to the personnel of the board. The president has not made his selections but will consider the question carefully during his Christmas vacation.

On its way to conference, the bill struck a snag in the house, where a fight over the number of conferees and the question of a separate vote or some of the senate amendments caused delay. Representative Glass asked unanimous consent to disagree to the senate amendments and sent the bill to conference. Representatives Harwick of Georgia and Madden of Illinois, contend the house should have as many conferees as the senate and said that they desired an opportunity to vote on some of the amendments.

McReynolds, however, secured consent to take up the bill. But Representative Murray of Oklahoma moved to concur in the senate amendments and the reading of the 50 pages of changes made by the senate was ordered causing a long delay in getting the bill before the conference committee.

BRYANS WILL SPEND
XMAS IN FLORIDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Secretary Bryan and Mrs. Bryan left Washington last night to spend Christmas at their winter place in Miami, Fla.
They will make brief stops at Adeville, N. C. and Jacksonville, Fla., en route to Miami. They expect to return in time to give the annual state breakfast to the diplomatic corps on New Year's day.

Luis Terrazas, Ex-Governor of Chihuahua, and Two Daughters, Who Fled from the State

In the order of General Pancho Villa, Constitutional conqueror of Chihuahua and ex-banished, is made good, Luis Terrazas, the richest man in northern Mexico, will be stripped of all his possessions within his native country. Villa, who is now supreme in Chihuahua City, the capital of the state, after his march from Juarez has announced he would confiscate the estates of the Terrazas and Creel families, the richest in that part of Mexico. The Terrazas family, fearing death from him, fled on his approach to the city.

For many years, for generations, the Terrazas family has been the leading one in the state of Chihuahua. Their wealth can only be guessed. It has been estimated as high as $50,000,000. To the exbanished this prize was one too great to give up.

Spanish Ambassador Issues
Denial That Spanish Subjects In Mexico Aided Huerta Cause

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Senor Riano, the Spanish ambassador acting under instructions from Madrid, formally denied to the state department today that Spanish subjects in Mexico aided the Huerta cause, as contended by General Villa, who defended his action in confiscating Spanish property or charging that Spanish residents in Chihuahua had violated the neutrality laws. The following statement was made public by Acting Secretary Moore:

"Reports received at the department of state through the Spanish embassy, deny that the Spaniards in Mexico have taken part in politics there and affirm that they have always observed the strictest neutrality in the affairs of Mexico. These reports also declare that statements that have been sent out from El Paso that the Spaniards expressed an opinion that General Villa had made a public demonstration in favor of intervention by the United States or have committed other acts of questionable propriety with reference to political affairs in Mexico are unfounded."

A brief dispatch from Rear Admiral Fletcher says the situation at Tatu-pico is unchanged.

NEW TAX COMMISSION

Will Put a Stop to the Practice of Officials Handing Out Lucrative Jobs to Their Friends.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 20.—War was declared on the system of collecting delinquent taxes by paying agents from 25 to 40 per cent of what they collect, by the state tax commission today following a conference with Governor Cox and Auditor Donahay.
Many officials have allowed tax payments to become delinquent in order that they might pass out lucrative jobs to friends who get fat commissions for making these collections, the commission asserts.

"There seems no doubt that a species of graft is prevalent in many parts of the state," said a statement given out by the tax commission.
"It is not improbable that the investigation now being conducted will reveal that officials in some parts of the state have made money out of their delinquency. That was true under the fee systems and there seems to be evidence of its being conducted in some places since the old laws granting fees was repealed."

The tax commission will investigate tax collection methods in other states to see how delinquents are handled.

The tax commission has authorized deputy commissioners to employ members of county boards of review who are experienced in taxation methods to help the deputy commissioners in their work in the counties.
If they expect to remain in the service longer than temporarily, however, they must pass the examination to be given by the state civil service commission after January 1.

COLD WEATHER IS PROMISED FOR NEXT FEW DAYS

COLUMBUS, Dec. 20.—Prof. J.
Warren Smith, of the Ohio weather bureau has issued a warning to local shippers not to make any 48-hour shipments of perishable goods today unless they are prepared for a temperature of about 10 degrees.
The warning follows a turn in the weather has taken which will probably bring a decided drop in temperature, probably 20 degrees and a nice fall of snow.

Rain is predicted for tonight with brisk southerly winds blowing.
These will swing around to northwesterly early tomorrow morning and the gradual fall in temperature will change the rain to snow. Sunday night should see very cold weather and although the snowfall is not expected to be heavy, the precipitation will probably remain on the ground by reason of the cold.

MAY SUBSTITUTE
TORONTO FOR THE
CLEVELAND TEAM

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20.—The magnates of the federal baseball league met here today and before night important developments in the plan of expansion of the league is expected.
President G. Moore planned to announce a list of new players signed by the league and also a list of new ground acquired.

It was reported that the meeting would consider the substitution of Toronto for Cleveland in the list of clubs in which the league would maintain a team next season.

ANNUAL RUSH ON AT LOCAL POSTOFFICE

The bureau of the postoffice department is upon the employees and the Christmas rush is on in greater proportions this year than ever before. The parcels post has caused a congestion really unbelievable. Already the local offices are crowded with mail going out of the city and coming in for delivery. The early shopper is also the early gift sender, and boxes and parcels of all shapes and sizes are now inhabiting the postoffice with the written warning "Do not open until Christmas."

Arrangements have been made whereby the windows at the office will be open from 1 to 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, for the purpose of mailing parcels. No mail will be distributed, but all parcels to be mailed out will be accepted. It is the intention of the postmaster to add from six to eight men, as they are needed, some of them going on duty on Monday. All the employees have been working extra time and the carriers will also go on extra time. Provision is being made to secure wagons to insure the delivery of the parcels post packages.

A special plea is made for all gift senders to wrap packages securely. Large suit boxes wrapped with ordinary wrapping twine are not considered secure. Care in making labels the address, will greatly help the overworked Santa Claus of Uncle Sam.

SMASH GLASS, GRAB JEWELRY AND ESCAPE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lima, O., Dec. 20.—Thriving a brick wrapped in a copy of a Toledo paper of Friday's date, a clever thief this morning smashed a plate glass window of R. D. Melton, 14's jewelry store on the public square, and escaped with rings and watches valued at $700. It is believed by local police that one of the same gang which yesterday looted a jewelry store at Bluffton was responsible.

PLEASANT-HARMLESS

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before Breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

WILL EXEMPT ASSISTANTS OF POSTMASTERS

House Committee on Postoffices Votes to Free Assistant Postmasters From the Civil Service.

Washington, Dec. 20.—All assistant postmasters will be exempted from the civil service under the postoffice appropriation bill, completed yesterday afternoon by the house committee on postoffices and to be reported immediately after the holiday recess. The Democrats of the committee voted to put into the measure a provision substantially similar to the one in the sundry civil bill, under which deputy collectors and deputy marshals were exempted from civil service.

The bill carries approximately $303,000,000, a cut of about $3,000,000 from the estimates submitted by the postoffice department.

ABBOTT FINDS YOUNGSTERS WHO ENTERED HOME

Patrolman Abbott Saturday morning consumed a brief half hour to clear up a "suit-case mystery" and had the satisfaction of being able to locate two youthful miscreants, wring from them a confession and the return of a quantity of goods which they took from a suitcase at the home of Harry Stone in Wilson street. The report at headquarters alleged that the Stone home was entered and a quantity of stuff taken from Mr. Stone's garage. Patrolman Abbott, detailed on case, discovered that the two boys had been seen about the place. Further inquiry identified the lads and at their home, the officer succeeded in getting an admission from them. He recovered all the goods, which included brushes, cart-ridges, and numerous other articles. He ordered them to report to the juvenile court where the case will be disposed of.

CONFERENCE FOR RACE BETTERMENT AT BATTLE CREEK

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 20.—Extensive preparations are being made for the holding of the first national conference on race betterment here from January 5 to 12, 1914. As the name implies, the object of the conference is to point out ways for general improvement of race conditions. Careful attention will be paid to the assertion that the birth rate is being lowered to an alarming extent while vice and insanity are increasing.

LADY COOK WRITES FOR ONE OF LEADING PRESS ASSOCIATIONS.
Lady Cook, nee Tennessee Claflin, born at Homer, this county, is now writing a series of plain talks to parents and teachers on the subject of Eugenics, which are being used by one of the leading press associations. The articles are a direct appeal to parents to "lift the veil" of modesty and impart to their offspring the full intelligence of human reproduction rather than permitting them to glean their information from the streets. Lady Cook has taken great interest in the Eugenics movement and was, in fact, one of its earliest exponents of modern times.

The Courts

Divorce Petition.
Refusing to get her husband's meals and absenting herself from home three or four weeks at a time without notice, are given by Grover Pierson as causes for divorce from Katie Pierson, in a petition filed in probate court Saturday. They were married in Steubenville, Dec. 24, 1904, and have two children, Evelyn, 7, and James, 5. Pierson also charges his wife with infidelity, one act of which is alleged to have been committed in their home in Williams street, last Monday.

Grants Restraining Order.
Probate Judge Hunter Saturday granted a temporary restraining order to prevent the B. & O. railroad, the Franklin National bank and the Wehrle Realty company from paying over to John Frank, of Newark, any part of his financial interests held by those concerns. The order was granted on petition of Mrs. Trissy Frank, his wife, who prays for divorce, alimony and custody of their son, John, aged 6 years. Instances of alleged extreme cruelty are grounds upon which the plaintiff seeks the divorce. Attorney A. S. Mitchell filed the suit.

ANOTHER BOOK BY LOCAL AUTHOR

Miss Mary Emma Moore, retired instructor in the department of English literature in the Newark public schools, has added another most worthy work to the list of popular short stories of which she is the authoress. Miss Moore's latest work, just from The Advocate presses and bindery, is entitled "Paul Wentworth's Vacation."

The story, written in a sympathetic vein with a predominating religious sentiment subtly conveyed, has to do with the re-animation, as it were, of Rev. Paul Wentworth, the chief character whose experiences and observations while on a vacation turn him to new methods in the pursuance of his vocation. There is a pretty association of characters throughout the story which adds to the interest.

The work is issued in various bindings and has been placed on sale here.

Two preceding works by Miss Moore, "Doctor Bob," the first, and "An Oxford Episode," have found a good sale and have won recognition and high compliments from sources which prove their merit.

APPOINTED MEMBER OF THE SINKING FUND TRUSTEES

Humpf, whose resignation was submitted to the mayor a few days ago. Mr. Franklin, who has been the efficient council clerk for the past two years, will not be eligible for reelection, having declined the offer of support from several members of the new council. He was secretary of the Democratic city executive committee during the recent campaign.

MANUFACTURERS CANNOT FIX THE RETAIL PRICE

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 29.—The United States circuit court of appeals yesterday decided that the Waltham Watch company, of Waltham, Mass., could not force Charles A. Keene, a New York jeweler, to stop selling their watches at cut prices. The court affirmed the decision of the federal district court without opinion. Keene bought the company's watches abroad at a price lower than that charged by jobbers here and sold them for less than the price set by the manufacturer for the domestic retail trade. The decision is in line with recent decisions of the United States supreme court that the manufacturers of a patented or copyrighted article cannot fix the retail price.

"The Manger to the Cross." Tonight, Sunday matinee and night the management of the Auditorium will offer what is undoubtedly the most wonderful motion picture ever made. After a great deal of preparation and expense, research work and the sending of a special company to Palestine, the Kalem Co. announced last winter that they had produced a picture dealing with the life of Christ from His birth to His crucifixion. The title given the picture is "From the Manger to the Cross," and every scene was taken in Jerusalem and the Holy Land.

The Orpheum.
The new bill at the Orpheum Theatre has been witnessed by large crowds. This is one of the finest bills that has been presented at the Orpheum this season. The opening number is Paul Perry and his great sensational novelty act, the strong man. As a man of strength as well as an artist he is unequalled. The Karam Sisters, character artists, singers and excellent dancers. The Karam Sisters putting only three days for the Orpheum Theatre at a special price arranged by our Cleveland office. These girls are of rare beauty and talent. They have a fine number and receive many encores. Third on the bill is Fanny Wise, the original Creole Nightingale. Miss Wise was formerly prima donna of Williams and Edwards shows. She is positively one of the best singers and actresses in modern vaudeville. The big surprise to the audience is De Barry Leigh, offering the biggest laugh of the season. Mr. Du Barry is unsurpassed for his feminine beauty and singing, as well as figure. Mr. Du Barry in his female impersonation wears some of the latest gowns. Finishing the bill is a two-reel feature "The Head Hunters." It is a bill worth seeing.

NEWS OF THE DAY ON THE GREAT WHITE WAY

Christmas in New York! The pet of a laute, the genius of a Dore, could not encompass that subject. Always a city of lights and shadows, the American metropolis becomes at Christmastide a place of terrible contrasts. Wealth and want rub shoulders in the streets, and now, more than ever, want envies and hates wealth. The illumination of the holiday spirit serves to bring into greater relief the skulking figures of misery and despair. "Peace on earth, good will to men," is a sentiment that seems but hollow mockery to those in the tenements, the slim sweatshops, the cheap lodging houses and other brick jungles where hordes of hungry, homeless humans are huddled. As Christmas charity seeks to build a temporary bridge across the chasm that separates Broadway and the Bowery, Fifth avenue and the East Side, plenty and poverty, but the gulf remains. Even while the victims of poverty and privation gorge greedily at the banquet provided by philanthropy, black hatred may seethe in their hearts for the more fortunate ones who have spread the feast.

The poor, at least in New York, are losing their humility. The other day I walked through the most congested quarter of the lower East Side. Ever there the pitiful preparations for Christmas cheer were in evidence. Salvation Army collectors, clad in Santa Claus garb, sought alms from the poor to provide a holiday dinner for those even poorer than themselves. Ill-clad workmen and pinched and half-starved factory girls contributed from their meager store. Street vendors hawked their cheap toys and dolls and paltry baubles. In a "movie" theatre patronized by the poor the screen depicted a drama based on a plot so ancient as to be threadbare. It was Christmas eve. The place a bare room in a tenement. Two little children hung up their stockings, then went to bed. The heart-broken mother wept, the father, long out of employment, perched his head in his hands. "Business of grief." Then the man arose, determined to write on his haggard features. He went out into the night. You knew that he was going to commit a burglary, that the little daughter of the rich man whose house he entered would inevitably catch him in the act, that the rich man, revolver in hand, would appear upon the scene. Listen to the sobbing story of the amateur burglar, and that the little girl would plead with her father, and that he would relent, and would accompany the poor man to his home laden with baskets of food and stung under a weight of gifts which had been intended for the daughter of the rich, but which were now destined to gladden the hearts of the children of the tenement. A few years ago the magnanimity of the rich man elicited a storm of cheers; now it provoked only hisses. I asked a man who sat beside me why he hissed.

"Because it is a lie," was his reply. "Because the burglar would have been sent to prison, and his wife and children left to starve. Because I have had industry and frugality preached to me all my life. I have worked ten hours a day for ten years. Ain't that industry? I have made only ten dollars a week, and my family of six have lived on that. Ain't that frugality? He glared at me, as if I were one of his oppressors. "Two or three times a year I get desperate for a change, and I spend a nickel to see the pictures—and they feed me this rot. It couldn't happen. I tell you, and even if it did Christmas is only one day a year, and a good Christmas ain't going to keep you alive for twelve months." No, he said, he wasn't a socialist. Didn't know anything about it. Didn't know of any remedy, except to go out and take, and go to jail for it, and make the State support him. No more do I. And so I went away from there. There are cheerful aspects to the coming Christmas celebration in this man's town. One of them is the annual tribute which many of the children of New York will pay to the memory of Clement Clarke Moore, author of "Twas the Night Before Christmas," who sleeps in Trinity church cemetery at Riverside drive and 155th street. For two or three years, on Christmas morning, hundreds of children have formed processions which marched to the cemetery, singing Christmas songs and carols, and carrying flowers and holy to place upon the plain granite monument to the man who knew Santa Claus so well. Moore's father was "Bishop Moore, president of Columbia college, and his mother was the daughter of an English army officer. Moore wrote the poem for the entertainment of his own children, on the day before Christmas in 1822. The verses might never been published except for the fact that the Moore children had as their guest, the daughter of a Troy, N. Y., clergyman. She copied the poem, and, upon her return to her home, gave it to the editor of the Troy Sentinel, who published it in that paper. Dr. Moore was the author of learned works and he didn't think much of his poetic effort, but before he died half a century ago the verses had been translated into dozens of languages, and printed in newspapers all over the world. Now his memory is honored because of the simple little poem, and not because he compiled a Greek and Hebrew dictionary and other ponderous tomes.

From present appearances, Walter's Christmas isn't going to be very happy one this year. The year 1913 has been a bad one for the brokers and stock exchange firms, and the annual holiday gratuities to employees will in many cases be considerably reduced. The big banks and trust companies customarily give the employees a bonus ranging from five to twenty-five or thirty per cent of their annual salary. This year, in most cases, it will be nearer the first than the latter percentage.

In whatever direction the prosperity cat may jump, there is one class of working people in New York who can always depend upon having their share of Christmas cheer. However financially "pinched" the residents in apartment houses may feel they never forget the janitor. They have learned from bitter experience that it doesn't pay. The customary tariff exacted ranges from a dollar per family in the poorer houses to five or ten dollars in the more exclusive apartment houses of the higher class. The French labor leaders who invented what they called "sabotage" probably thought they were doing something novel and new, but New York janitors have practiced a form of sabotage for as long as the oldest inhabitant can remember. There are any number of petty annoyances, and crimes of commission and omission that a janitor can perpetrate on those who forget the Christmas contribution, and he is an unusually lenient janitor who refrains from any one of them. Yet the tribe of janitors, as found in New York, have been unduly maligned. They are more often courteous and considerate and willing than not, when treated kindly, and they look upon the holiday collection as a part of their earned and legitimate wage. The fault, if any, is with the system.

Roland Lodge, K. of P.

In the presence of a goodly company of the brethren last Tuesday evening the Knight rank was conferred in full form by the degree team of Roland Lodge, No. 245. The work was very impressive and resulted in a first-class member. Three applications for membership were received and four others balloted upon and elected. Bro. Walter Jones gave a good report of the 101st home Bible class meeting in Columbus last Monday evening. Over one hundred candidates from Columbus and surrounding towns were given the Pledge rank in Memorial hall, using the same Bible that was used 50 years ago at the founding of the order. Roland lodge was represented by one candidate and several of the brothers. Between three and four thousand Knights were in attendance.

Next Tuesday evening the Pledge rank will be conferred upon six candidates. The installation of officers will take place the first meeting night in January. It will be determined next Tuesday eve whether we are to have a big Jubilee class February 19, 1914, the fifteenth anniversary of the institution of the order. Visitors are always welcome.

NEWARK ELKS TO ATTEND CIRCUS IN SPECIAL CAR

Newark Elks are arranging for a special car to Columbus some day next week to attend the big winter circus, promoted by their Columbus brethren, the proceeds from the circus being for the benefit of the new home in the capital city.

There will be two performances daily at Memorial Hall on East Broad street, one at 2 in the afternoon and the other at 8 o'clock in the evening. There will be two rings and an elevated stage and the circus will open Monday, Dec. 22, and continue throughout the week. Two hundred people will take part, including twelve funny clowns.

There will be a herd of performing elephants, a troupe of performing bears, educated giraffes, bareback riders, bucking mules, in fact all arena acts found in a first class circus. In addition there will be daring stunts by the Genie sisters, the Lunette sisters, seen at the Licking county fair this fall. The world's famous Siegrist-Silbon troupe of ten stars, an acrobatic act by the renowned Schiavoni troupe and twelve other separate and distinct acts. The circus is pronounced par excellent and everyone is given a cordial invitation to attend.

Dermoddy retired from the police department several years ago where he had served efficiently since 1902. He became well-known among police officials, particularly through Central Ohio and is a popular man. His appointment pleased his many friends in Mt. Vernon as well as other points over the state.

EARLY ACTION ON EQUAL SUFFRAGE IN THE SENATE

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Washington, Dec. 20.—Early action in the senate on the proposed constitutional amendment to enfranchise women is expected by the senators who favor the proposal and the women suffragist leaders at headquarters of the National American Woman's Suffrage association.

Senator Thomas, chairman of the committee in charge of the proposed amendment, expects to bring it up as soon as congress settles down to work after the Christmas holidays. The senators who favor it, say its earlier consideration has been prevented only by the pressure for passage of the administration currency bill. One other legislative subject—the Alaska railroad bill—has first demand on the senate's time when it gets down to business again and it is the plan to have it day afternoon while serving as agent at Broadway, this county.

With Ohio Club Women

Conducted by Mrs. Charles S. Rockhill, Chairman of the Publicity Department of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs Club Women Interested in Ohio School Survey.

The very large attendance at the educational congress held in Columbus, December 26-27, to discuss ways and means for the betterment of rural schools, while somewhat turbulent in character, was most convincing evidence of the widespread interest in the subject. From every part of the state came delegates interested in the discussion.

The representatives of the Ohio Federation of women's clubs at a preliminary conference held in November understood that club women were invited to go to this congress as delegates and so announced it. Owing to some clerical confusion in the office of the director of survey a notice was sent to Ohio club women, stating that they were invited to attend, but not as delegates. This statement was very quickly corrected by Dr. Horace L. Brittain, director of the survey, in a second notice to presidents of clubs. In some instances a telegraphic notice being sent that former notice was to be disregarded, and that club women were to be delegates with voting power and further stating his great regret that former notices had been sent as he particularly desired the presence of many club women. Owing to this lamentable error in the Columbus office, there were not as many club women in attendance as would otherwise have been. It is a subject of great interest, however, to all loyal earnest club women.

Club Notes.

The Twentieth Century and the Woman's clubs are organizing the women of western Wisconsin to protest against the hanging of Mrs. Wakefield. They expect to get thousands of names to a petition.

A vocational guidance bureau will be established in Minneapolis, Minn. A committee of 15 from women's club and other associations will act as advisors to the Board of Education to help young people to select their life occupation, on leaving school.

Meyer Bloomfield of the Postor bureau gave a series of lectures in Minneapolis recently on vocational guidance and crystallized a strong sentiment already existing in favor of such work.

A department of child welfare said to be the first of its kind in any educational institution in the country, has been inaugurated by the efforts of club women in the University of Kansas at Lawrence, Kansas. Prof. William A. McKeever is at its head. One of its plans is a course in child psychology, available for parents all over the state. This child welfare work follows very closely on the granting of equal suffrage.

Dr. C. W. Garrison of the Arkansas Board of Health gives warm praise to the State Federation of Women's Clubs. "They are largely responsible for all that has been done thus far in the education of school children as to the evils of disease and in teaching simple methods of prevention," said Dr. Garrison. "Also the club women had a large part in the passage of the bill creating the present State Board of Health."

A careful study of the needs of the public schools of Atlanta, Ga., will be made by the City Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Charles J. Haden, president. Members of the School Board will afford them every facility as the whole idea of the women is to be helpful in any needful improvement.

Mrs. Elmer Blair of Albany, former president of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs, is the only woman member of the New York State Health commission.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Look years younger! Use Grandmother's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant. Agents Hall's drug store.

ST. LOUISVILLE MAN IS GRATEFUL FOR CURE

Samuel Harris, of St. Louisville, tells the story of his ailment and its successful treatment by Dr. Engle at the Newark Trust building.

"I have suffered from Rheumatism off and on for several years and most of the time have been unable to work. I have tried several physicians and patent medicines as well but received no benefit. About August 20, 1913, I consulted Dr. Engle and began treatment with him. In less than two weeks I was back at work, and in two months I was a well man. At this date, Dec. 18, 1913, I can say that there has never been any return of the pain and that I am working every day."

"I certainly can heartily recommend any one suffering with Rheumatism to consult Dr. Engle."

Harris stamped an envelope when writing testimonial cases.

I treat successfully all Chronic Diseases, Private Diseases of Men and Women, Rheumatism, Gout, Rheumatism, and all Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

On terms reasonable. Curable Cases are Guaranteed. I am permanently located here. You can see me any time but better hurry. Dr. A. L. Engle, 506 Trust Building, 16-18-20.

The Christ Child

From Paintings in the Louvre Gallery Paris

The Virgin and the Infant Jesus - Cimabue

The Holy Family at Rest - Canticini

The Virgin and the Child - Meissonier

While shepherds watched their flock by night, All seated on the ground;
The Angel of the Lord came down And glory shone around."

PICTURE galleries throughout the world vie with each other in the beauty and excellence of the paintings of the Christ Child which hang upon their walls. Each gallery boasts of its own particular pictures—the works of the old masters, and while there may be a difference of opinion as to the relative merits of some galleries and as to the number of art treasures they possess it is safe to say that the ones to be found in the splendid Louvre gallery in Paris cannot be excelled.

Raphael.
Here one may see Raphael in all his phases, and the art lover is afforded ample opportunity to study the work of this master painter from his charming little pictures of Saint George and Saint Michael to the canvas of the Holy Family, where the great artist is seen at his best. Raphael painted a number of Madonnas but none more beautiful than the sweet-faced Virgin in his Holy Family, on whose face he has so perfectly portrayed the expression of maternal love. The delicate coloring of the face and the natural position of the mother leaning toward the Child as if to hold Him in her arms has been noted by art connoisseurs. The sweet, innocent face of the Child's expression, and the strong, thoughtful face of Joseph in the background are wonderful human. The other figures of the picture were evidently painted with great care as they are as life-like in expression as those of the Holy Family. The picture is rich in coloring and is regarded as one of the gems of the gallery. From an fact that this picture belonged to the royal collection of King Francis I, sometimes known as the Holy Family.

charming child-like action to bestride His figure, while beautiful, is not as strong as the other two, for in that seductive and profane loveliness which haunted his own visions. The landscape serves as a background to the figures—a landscape strewn with rocks and water and purple distances, hemmed in by azure mountains with rugged, broken outlines that he loved—adds an ineffable something to the mystery and grandeur of the picture. Since the disappearance of da Vinci's "Mona Lisa" the art world has turned to this picture, and its value has so increased that an attendant is always nearby.

Rubens.

As a painter of large pictures Peter Paul Rubens perhaps excels all the other masters, and some of his best works hang in the Louvre gallery. The "Adoration of the Magi" holds a high rank among his works owing to the excellent drawing of the figures and the beautiful facial expression of the Virgin and the Child. This canvas is particularly well hung as the light falls directly on the face of the Child and seems to light up the curious halo about His head. The face of the Virgin is said to have been painted from a living model who was a relative of the artist.

Murillo.

Born of humble parents and reared in almost abject poverty, Bartolome Esteban Murillo finally became one of the world's greatest painters. A student of a relative named Castello, he learned the elements of drawing and later became acquainted with Valesquez, who admitted him to his studio for work. He offered his work for sale at the Feria, a weekly picture market in Seville, and a number of them were sent to Latin America, which accounts for a number of the great artist's paintings being found here. This fact has led to the idea that he visited America, but such is not the case. Among his pictures which hang in the Louvre is his "Holy Family," which for softness and delicate coloring has never been excelled. The face of his Virgin in this picture is regarded as the purest and sweetest face in the entire gallery. The face of the Child, too, has a softness and charming simplicity. The whole picture is colored with the most accurate attention to nature, even the coloring of the dove which hovers over the head of the Child.

Botticelli.

Botticelli's "Virgin, Infant Jesus and Saint John" is noted throughout the world for the refined sentiment which is characteristic of this painter's work. The features of the Virgin are clear cut and the transparent veil covers without wholly concealing her golden hair so tastefully arranged and the aureole on the head forms an agreeable substitute for the usually solid nimbus. Art critics have always noted the beautiful modeling of the left she gazes down on the Child. The face of Joseph—in fact, the whole make-up of the figure, suggests the tired, worn-out traveler. The coloring is remarkably rich and is a seventeenth century work.

"Cima."

Giovanni Cione, known in the art world as "Cima" from the fact that he was constantly introducing into his paintings the hills and landscapes of his native place. These hills are especially noticeable in his "Virgin and the Infant Jesus" in the Louvre. He was regarded as a master both in coloring and drawing, and it will be noted how clear cut are the figures in this picture, especially that of the Child, who seems to be attracted by the saint on the left as He holds one finger of the Virgin in a most natural fashion. The picture is one which attracts universal attention, and is of the sixteenth century.

Carrache.

Lodovico Carracci or La Carrache came of a family of Bolognese painters of the sixteenth century, and was a pupil of Timoretti. He was told by his teacher that he would never succeed as an artist and was advised to take up some other profession. Indeed, he seemed so stupid and slow that his fellow students gave him the name of "the ox." He, however, persisted, and finally succeeded in obtaining recognition and later founded the Carrache School of Painting. His "Virgin and the Child" is regarded as his best work, on account of the beautiful face and graceful pose of the child.

Meissonier.

"The Virgin and the Child," by Juste Aurèle Meissonier, while not one of the greatest pictures of the Louvre, is one of the most pleasing on account of the very bright eyes of the Child, which seem to follow the visitor from whatever point the picture is viewed.

The Madonna and Infant Jesus with St. Anne - Leonardo da Vinci of Francis the First.

Leonardo da Vinci.
On the opposite wall in the same room hangs Leonardo da Vinci's picture of the Madonna, the Infant Jesus and Saint Anne—a canvas equally well known as one of the world's greatest art treasures. Seated on the knees of her mother, Saint Anne, the Virgin leans toward Christ, who holds a lamb by both ears attempting with must.

of the child. The pose of the Virgin is that of a woman who is tired and weary, perhaps after a long journey. The coloring is particularly rich and is a seventeenth century work. The face of the Child is one which attracts universal attention, and is of the sixteenth century.

While engaged in the active duties of a carpenter in the Protestant Episcopal church, the Rev. Thomas Townsend Brady has found time to write over half a hundred books which have won him a host of admirers throughout the English-speaking world. Mr. Brady has a volume to his credit for each year of his life, since he was twenty. His books were also today in Algonquin, and even if it is considered that he did not begin his literary career until thirty years ago it will be realized that he is a prolific writer. Mr. Brady's first ambition was to become an admiral in Uncle Sam's Navy, and with this end in view he secured an appointment to Annapolis and graduated from the Naval Academy in 1878. Later he decided that railroading offered a greater future, and for several years he was employed on the Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific railroads. It was while thus engaged that he felt stirring in his heart the call to the ministry, and he took up the study of theology under Bishop Worthington of Nebraska. In 1890 he was ordained a priest of the Episcopal church, and was rector of churches in Colorado and Missouri and archdeacon of Kansas, and later arch-deacon of Springfield. It was in the case of Phillips that church work he excelled. His first call was to a church with 100 members of German descent. "For the President of the church," in the year 1840, while Mr. Neal was still building up the church in Kansas, Rev. Jones appeared under his name. In 1840 he resigned his charge to devote his entire time to literature. But the call of the church was too insistent for him to resist, and three years later he accepted the call of a Toledo church. In 1846 he went to Kansas City, and later to a church in Missouri, where a series of sermons was preached. A church in New York was organized for a too great devotion to ritualism, and invited to go over to the Roman Catholic church, but the clergyman-author did not accept the invitation.

John Worth Kern, Democratic leader in the United States Senate, and candidate for the vice-presidency of the United States in the 1900 campaign, was born at Alto, Ind., sixty-four years ago today. Like Vice-President Marshall, Senator Kern is a Hoosier Hoosier. He was educated twice married, practiced law and entered politics in the State which has produced more statesmen and literary lights than any other in the Union, with possibly one or two exceptions. Mr. Kern has been a Hoosier since A. Z. and it has been said that he

JEWS IN ROUMANIA IS VERY PITIFUL

Washington, Dec. 25.—Conditions arising from alleged discrimination against Jews in Roumania were described as "pitiful" by Representative Chandler of New York, yesterday before the House foreign affairs committee. He urged favorable report on his resolution calling upon the secretary of state to urge the Berlin treaty of 1878, to enforce Roumania's observance of that convention which promised no discrimination because of creed or race. Secretary of State Bryan, Mr. Chandler said, was in sympathy with the resolution. The committee took no action.

Croup and Cough Remedy

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At Frank D. Hall's.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR DECORATIONS OF XMAS TREE

Federation of Women's Clubs to Be in Charge—Buckeye Band Teaches its Services Grátis.

Work of raising the municipal Christmas tree in the northwest corner of the courthouse park, where it was delivered Friday afternoon, was abandoned for the balance of the day and the tree was rested on the ground until Saturday morning, when it was mounted on cross pieces and a crew of workmen with blocks and tackle hoisted it into position.

The final touches were put on it during the forenoon, ready for the wiring and decorating, which probably will be finished early Monday. The Christmas tree committee is now busy itself with perfecting plans already announced, to make the Christmas eve celebration one long to be remembered in Newark. So well has the idea been received here that it has been suggested that an American arbor vitae of medium size be planted in the courthouse yard so that in future years all that would be necessary would be to trim the tree and obtain funds for remembrances for worthy poor children.

The fund, now exceeding $100, is not slow in increasing, and the committee is anxious to receive contributions in any amount—from the smallest that can be given. All money above the cost of placing the tree will be used in purchasing Christmas remembrances for children of the poor.

The Ohio Light & Power company, by donating lights, wiring and current; the Federation of Women's clubs, by agreeing to decorate the tree gratis, and the Buckeye band, offering free services, have set an example for contributors, while individual donations of money will help to make Christmas worth while for children of the needy in Newark.

Below is a complete list of contributions made through the Advocate for Newark's Municipal Christmas tree. Nobody need fear that the fund will be too large. All money in excess of the expenses attached to the Christmas tree will be used in spreading Christmas cheer among the children of Newark. The time is short. Christmas comes next Thursday. You are invited to send your contribution to the Advocate now.

Christmas Thoughts

By Chalmers L. Pancoast.

HOW OFTEN DO YOU SAY "MERRY CHRISTMAS?"

A little word of cheer can bring a lot of happiness, and "Merry Christmas" unspoken can bring a lot of misery into life. Be careful not to forget to greet the people you meet with a "Merry Christmas." Use the words that bring joy instead of pain. The more happiness you bring into the world the more you'll get out for yourself. Leaving things unsaid, or saying mean things, will never make people love you. People hate only when they are prompted to do it. They love when you give them an opportunity to love you.

A kind word—a word of Christmas greeting—is such a little thing, but the result is wonderful. It is cruel to be rude and hurt people needlessly. Think—think about what Christmas is for—if you use your tongue to spread the Christmas spirit the world will appear happier wherever you go. Try to bring more sunshine into life—Christmas is no time for shadows and dark clouds.

Join in the glory of Christmas Day—spread the good cheer wherever you go.

MAYOR SWARTZ ABLE TO HOLD COURT SATURDAY

Mayor Swartz, who has been ill for several days at his home in Union street, was able to preside in police court Saturday morning. He disposed of a dozen cases which had accumulated during his illness.

Charles Baker, arrested Friday morning on a charge of being drunk and abusing his family, pleaded not guilty and his case was set for hearing Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. He gave bond for his appearance.

W. A. Ackers, claiming to be an organizer for the order of Owls held for investigation, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of obtaining furniture valued at $80, under false pretenses. His hearing will occur Monday morning. The marshal of Somerset came to Newark Friday and left a warrant at police headquarters charging Ackers with failing to pay a board bill for himself and wife. This will be served on Ackers when the case here is disposed of.

A half dozen drew fines of $5 and costs, some of the fines being suspended while others were sent to jail. A colored man arrested for vagrancy turned pale when he was sentenced to the county jail for 60 days, but he smiled broadly when the court agreed to suspend the sentence on condition that he leave town immediately.

POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN GET SALARY TODAY

Members of the police and fire department, who have been unable to follow the slogan "do your Christmas shopping early" because their salaries were held up on the 15th because of a lack of funds, were made happy Saturday morning when the pay rolls were sent to the auditor's office. The city's portion of the revenue from the saloon tax was turned over Saturday and made it possible to pay the salaries. Approximately $22,000 was paid to the members of the two departments during the day. With the payment of the salaries of the street and waterworks department and the city force, the city turned nearly $200,000 into the channels of trade Saturday.

THE SICK

No improvement was reported Saturday in the condition of Probate Judge Hunter, who has been confined to his home for two days with a severe attack of the grip.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Rinehart, who has been seriously ill with heart trouble, in his home in Maple avenue, was reported considerably improved Saturday.

Marked improvement in the condition of George W. Horton was reported Saturday. Mr. Horton has been very ill for several weeks. Dr. P. H. Cosner is attending him.

FOREIGNERS BELIEVED TO HAVE ELOPED

Francisco Renra and Mrs. John Crosby were in common pleas court Saturday morning, which is to say that Francisco's wife, Inez, and Mrs. Crosby's husband, John, were not there, for which reason Judge Fulton granted a divorce to Francisco.

Through the able explanations of the Renra-Crosby romance, presented to the court by Attorney B. G. Smythe and a number of witnesses, it was made reasonably clear to the court that Inez Renra and John Crosby left for parts unknown simultaneously about three months ago. Since Francisco charged Inez with infidelity, naming Crosby, counsel for Francisco assumed that Inez and John probably know where the other is.

FIRST FIRE FROM DECORATIONS FOR CHRISTMAS SEASON

A flying matchhead set fire to a Christmas bell made of tissue paper used for decorating, caused an alarm Saturday morning shortly after 9 o'clock. The department went to the residence of Dora Clark, 38 Walnut street. An upstairs room was filled with smoke before the bell was thrown from the window. There was no loss.
